SCHOOL ROOM CONDUCTS HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Grade VIII, VIII and IX room of the Bassano School held a party in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Saturday night and all seemed to participate in what appeared to be a very pleasant evening. Mr. Curtis was quite pleased with the initiative of his pupils in laying their plans. Archie MacLean and his sister, who had arranged a very fine lunch—even if one of the cakes did contain more than when it was baked.

Prizes were contributed by local merchants and the pupils carried on contests for them. Miss Jean Wilson, Miss Frieda Schelke, Norman Ingberberg, Jackie Reimer and several other prizes for costumes. David Walsh in his Negro Lady costume was truly an outstanding character.

Music and dancing artists included Margaret Flanagan, Stanley Storaas, Mary Walsh, Verne Thompson, Barbara Jenette, Nan McLaws, Lorna and Mildred MacLean and the class as a whole.

Many thanks are due to those whose efforts made this event a success.

Boy Scout Notes

After a week's retirement the local Scout returned to action last Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock under the guidance of Scoutmaster Wm. McLaws.

About twenty-five Scouts were in attendance to participate in the usual physical jerks, marches, etc. The boys seemed a trifle stiff but all signs of this was absent as they continued their series until A. S. Currie.

The pyramids are advancing rapidly and should soon be ready for display. The Scouts seemed to be very energetic as the meeting was not adjourned till 1:30 p.m.

Five more Scouts qualified and were presented their Second Class Badges. Scouts passing were: James Hickey, Bill Plummer, Graham Castro and Robert Biles of the Beavers; William Biles of the Wolfcubs. Those boys who have not yet passed are asked to study and pass these tests as soon as possible.

To make knowledge valuable, you must have the cheerfulness of wisdom. Goodness smiles to the last.— Emerson.

Curling Club Organize for Coming Season

On Tuesday night, last, fourteen of the enthusiasts of the curling game met in the office of Mr. William McLaws to elect officers for the coming season. The Curling Club on last season's operations show a balance in the bank of $72.00, all last year's dues with the exception of one having been collected.

The following officers were elected for the 1937-1938 season.

Pres.—Robert Donaldson
Vice-Pres.—Irvine Young
Sec.—Treas.—W. F. MacBeth

It was decided to procure three sets of second hand rocks to be raffled off. Two of the pair will be raffled to club members for the cost of 25 cents, while the third pair will be raffled during the curling season.

The fees for the coming year were set at $1.00 for adult membership and $0.50 for Junior members. 14 and under.

It was also decided that the local school boys should be encouraged to curl, but that they should be restricted to Saturday afternoons and Friday evenings between the hours of four and six. On these days schedule games will be played. The fee for the above privileges will be one dollar and the school boys are reminded they must furnish their own brooms.

It was decided at the meeting that the Club rocks should be sharpened and that this be done locally, by an experienced curler, as most arrangements could be made. The subject of a crested hat was brought up and it was decided to have this in the hands of the curling club. The Curling Club and the Rinks Limited can be formed any time. They should be handed in to F. MacBeth. They will be approved by the executive. No date was set for handing in the same.

AFTERMATH.

"IF YE BREAK FAITH . . . WE SHALL NOT SLEEP!"

Over the crimsoned field where poppies blow
A grey mist hovers like a changing wraith;
And voices bring a cry from out the mist;
"We sleep not, Comrades, do ye keep the faith?"

They gave their lives to make a better world,
Safe for the old, the helpless, and the young—
Safe for that wider brotherhood of man;
What of that victory so dearly won?

What is this foe with whom we keep the quarrel?
What is this conflict this we must suppress?
What but the idol in the market-place—
The symbol of a national selfishness?

Is this remembering, that day by day
They who were with us failed to follow us—
Begging their humble stint of daily bread?
The heroes—nay, the victims of our wars!

That day by day they told the weary roads,
While little children staid, and women sigh—
Our granaries overflow with golden grain!
"What say you, Comrades? Is the Torch held high?"

Far on Olympus, how the Gods must laugh!
The larks still sing; the daisies "Comes anon!"
We heard the golden grain—and thing of chaff!
The poppies flourish—but our rest is gone!

WEDDINGS

ROBERTS—ARMY

Arrowwood, Nov. 1st — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Army of Arrowwood on Nov. 1st, when their third daughter, Lora Fern, became the bride of George Roberts, son of Mrs. Geo. Richards of Arrowwood.

Her father, the pastor of the Old Sun church, officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her floor length chiffon gown trimmed with a white stick tulle collar, belt and wide hand band. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Vancil, wore a floor length chiffon gown trimmed with a white stick tulle collar, belt and wide hand band. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms.

THE ROOT OF THE TROUBLE

Some seven years ago drought struck hard in Southern Alberta. It has persisted in ever-increasing extent since then with the area affected steadily growing until it has taken in practically all of the most productive acres in the southern part of the province. Wheat is the main source of revenue of the province. With curtailed revenue from wheat due to subnormal production and poor prices the plight of the Alberta farmer and communities depending on wheat production became and has become more serious as time goes on.

When the "bottom" dropped out of the market on both production and price, Albertans blamed the economic system, the Banks, the "Fifty Big Shots," their own shortcomings, the Federal Government, the Provincial Government, and other agencies which if the truth were known had but little to do with the plight of the Province generally. Practically every one of our present economic ills would have disappeared long ago, if wheat production had been up to normal during the past three years when prices were at a fair level. Wheat production, or rather the lack of sufficient wheat production is, the real root of the evil.

LEGISLATIVE PILLS

Any political shortcomings of the U. F. A. administration which may have prevailed in 1935 or prior thereto had really but little to do with the economic plight of Alberta in August 1935. But it certainly was a direct result of economic and political discontent, that enabled William Aberhart and his cohorts to ride into power on the Social Credit Chariot advocating a nebulous economic theory, which sounds well but which runs counter to human nature and experience, which has been advocated since 1920 but has never been tried in any country; and which it was evident to any thinking person could never be brought into actual being in the Province of Alberta, even by the method of trial and error, or the hiring of a succession of experts at $6,000 each per annum.

NO ELECTION YET

As time goes on, it becomes increasingly clear that the Social Credit Government has no intention of calling an election this fall. Mr. Aberhart has not as yet succeeded in creating a satisfactory constitutional issue on which to base an appeal to the people and distract their minds from his Government's failures to bring about the Social Credit Utopia. The Prime Minister of Canada with characteristic political astuteness has unhesitated and left him alone, so that even if the courts decide against Mr. Aberhart on all or any of the three Bills referred to them, he will not now be able to align the Federal Government with the Banks and the financial interests. Mr. Aberhart has ceased talking about the volume of Blue Pledges and it now appears that the 14,000 signatures in Edmonton which Mr. Manning spoke so articulately about, must have been a figment of his rather highly coloured imagination as results of an Edmonton by-election clearly demonstrate. The reference to the courts will of necessity, take time, and it now looks as if there will be still another session and more indemnities, before an election is called and the people of Alberta discover after the ballots have been counted just how much truth there is in the statements of Mr. Aberhart and Mr. Manning on the extent of the Blue Pledge sign up.

HALLOWEEN

Reading the daily newspapers concerning the havoc wrought at places elsewhere than in Bassano as a result of Halloween mischief should give parents in this community and those responsible for the conduct of the youth of the Town some reason for pride. Bantam shenanigans turned into a veritable shambles and many prosecutions will result. In other communities much the same tale is told. In Bassano on the other hand not a single complaint has been made. Other property was likewise respected, and generally the youngsters behaved in a manner highly creditable to themselves. On Monday morning one youngster, aged eleven, naively reported that "me and my gang did our good turn yesterday", to wit: replacing and re-erecting an outside toilet. That youngster ought to make good Scout material.

THE "POPPY"

The symbolism of the poppy, the sorrowful appropriations of its blood-red bloom, takes a deeper significance with each succeeding year. The Great War is passing almost into legend; a generation is bequeathed the duty of carrying into the years that have yet to come; the work and the ideals of those whom the Poppy commemorates.

Canada, along with the whole Empire, has adopted the Poppy as a symbol for Remembrance Day, because of the 60,000 graves in France and Belgium in which lie the dead of the preceding generation, because of the 170,000 Canadians to whom the conflict brought disablement of one kind or another. The crosses in the cemeteries of Flanders are garland with Poppies—dolls of our emblems of a nation's youth consumed in the "Wrath-red forge of War."

On Poppy Day this Dominion pauses in its normal activities to recall the sacrifice of its young men, to pay tribute to their heroism, their hardihood and the uncompelling fortitude with which they bore their privations and sufferings. At the same time Canada strives to liquidate in some small measure, an obligation to those disabled of Flanders are garland with Poppies—dolls of our emblems of a nation's youth consumed in the "Wrath-red forge of War."

The Dominion wide ramifications of the great Canadian Legion, with its tens of thousands of young men, to pay tribute to their heroism, their hardihood and the uncompelling fortitude with which they bore their privations and sufferings. INEFFICIENCY

The Lunney report on the provincial highway probe acquits the department of any sign of graft. This would be a greater source of satisfaction to Hon. W. A. Fallow and the government, if it were not nullified to a great extent by the finding of negligence, carelessness and other inefficiencies which made the roads much too costly. Although Mr. Fallow was not shown to have benefited in any way by expenditures, there was clearly a great waste of the taxpayers' money. The lack of competitive bidding in furnishing equipment, failure to see that the best equipment available was secured, laxity in demanding that timekeepers safeguard the interests of the government, big profits to rentors of equipment and from the feeding of men, insufficient qualifications of the general foreman are amongst the findings of the report. Mr. Keith, former deputy minister in the opinion of the report was not responsible for the mix-up which is likely to lose the province the federal share of $108,000 on the roadworks.

Altogether, the findings are such that the public expected, no evidence that Mr. Fallow made any personal profit, but a definite evidence of incompetence in the best handling of taxpayers' money. It is granted that the roads under the probe are amongst the best in the province. But efficient administration would have provided a much greater stretch of road for the same money.

It is one of the greatest weaknesses of our system of government, that with every change of government, new men are thrust into responsible offices for which, too often, they have no particular training. The cost to the public of this break in departmental business, would be even greater than it is, if it were not for the deputies and civil servants who hold the routine steady, while the minister is acquainting himself with his department.

Premier Aberhart must accept a heavy share of responsibility for the discharge of deputies and important civil servants during the present regime in Edmonton. This policy has been very destructive to good government because it has removed an experienced, non-partisan body of officials. It has been practised to a degree, almost unparalleled, and it places the minister of the department under a handicap which they themselves should recognize.

When Mr. Landryou was in High River he answered the charge of party patronage in civil service posts, by stating that the government was reorganizing departments on an efficiency basis. The Lunney report is a rebuke and an answer to Mr. Landryou's claim.

Inefficiency, it is true, is a much less heinous offence than personal dishonesty, but the results are just as costly to the taxpayer. And the Aberhart government, instead of offsetting its ineptness by retaining the best qualified and most experienced men, has disorganized all the departments by promiscuous firing and hiring. It would be surprising if other departments did not show the same deplorable waste of the people's money as the Department of Highways.

HE KNOWS WHEN TO BE SILENT

It is worthy of note that in his addresses since the Edmonton election, Premier Aberhart has carefully and studiously avoided any reference to that momentous event in which Mayor Clarke unofficially endorsed by the Fusian party, only polled 9,997 votes to 17,785 polled by the Fusian candidate, E. L. Gray. Father William can talk by the hour about the optimistic letters coming to him every week about the wonderful progress the movement is making in other provinces, but the result in Edmonton, the capital of the province, and from which the Social Credit government misdirects the affairs of Alberta, is strictly taboo in polite Social Credit circles. In this connection, it might be interesting to note that, in the recent election in Ontario only 521 Social Credit votes out of about 1,500,000 ballots, and in the election in B. C. where Mr. Aberhart had been over at one time, only 4,000 out of 300,000 voters voted for Social Credit. As far as Canada is concerned, Social Credit is a dead horse and nobody has done more to kill it than Premier Aberhart himself, acting under the wise? counsel of Douglas, Powell, Byrne et al.—Okotoks Review.

BLUE PLEDGES

Hon. E. C. Manning recently announced that 14,000 True Blue pledges had been signed by Edmontonians. Check-up of votes cast in the recent By-Election at Edmonton suggests that the True Blue Pledge signers either have gone into hibernation for the winter or else the statement of Mr. Manning was not based on fact.

Twenty years ago two farmers' grain companies serving Alberta Farmers were Amalgamated to form United Grain Growers Limited.

The twenty years that have passed have increased the confidence of farmers in this farmer-owned institution. Satisfactory experience in the handling of their grain is the basis of that confidence.

POPPY'S SIGNIFICANCE

ON NOVEMBER 11th

Poignant reminder of those glorious days of glory and of grieving, "Poppy Day" once more recurs to prompt the citizens of this country in the duties they have inherited from the past generation. To Canadian Youth in this year of grace, the deep red petals of the poppy may carry the same significance they bore to the youth of twenty years ago. The symbolism of sacrifice with which the Poppy has become charged is something to which the present generation succeeds only through the wistful memories of the aging men who fought their country's battles, who suffered privations, endured long agonies and finally returned to a world of surroundings carpeted with poppies.

To wear this humble emblem on Poppy Day is to proclaim that despite all its anguished confusion through which this country is striving valiantly to penetrate, the heart and mind are nevertheless attuned to a

After two, long, tedious years, the pupils of the Bassano High School are at last joining together to make high school history this year. It seems very strange, probably to some of you, that with a very small Grade seven of homage due to those men whose peace-inspired 400,000 Canadians to offer themselves for service between 1914 and 1918; of which humbler more than 60,000 found graves in France and Belgium. It is over these graves that the Poppy blows its perennial bloom.

The numbered dead were not strangers. They were young Canadians, some of them well known in this community, filled even as the youth of today is filled, with the joy of living. So, also were the 170,000 men who in 1937 bear upon their bodies the marks and scars of war; the disabled ex-servicemen who suffered disablement on behalf of Canada.

To manifest that proud recognition of their place in this country, to mark that tribute which is their due, Poppy Day has been set aside in order that all may join in recalling the Great Sacrifice.

The blood-red emblems distributed throughout Canada by the Canadian Legion's vast volunteer organization are the product of disabled veterans, men striving to maintain themselves in the Veldtrac Industries administered by the Dominion Government. To purchase a Poppy is a small thing. For every citizen to do so is a big thing.

XII and a small Grade X, that the students would care to undertake any sports or other educational enterprises as well as doing their very best in the every day school work.

But, it was not the idea of any single student to start the recess and after four games, as may be seen at the school basketball courts, etc., when weather permits. Nor was it any students idea to introduce Indian Club swinging as an excellent method of developing muscle and mental control. We will, however, give the credit of a Literary Society to two pupils new to high school, as it was their good work which brought about its re-organization.

In previous years, Bassano has held her own in sports but the interest of boys and girls attending school soon faded and waned about the middle of September was extinct. On reviewing the events that have taken place one sees that the whole atmosphere has undergone a change. Thinking it over, there is only one conclusion that a person could draw, and that is that the cause of such change must be the spirit of co-operation created by Mr. Meeres since his arrival at the beginning of the term.

No more is seen the half-hearted attempt at any sport, Algebra problems or attempt to organize a programme because everyone is doing their best to "put it over". As we mentioned before, the introduction of Indian Club swinging seems to have won a permanent place in the recreation periods provided for such purposes. Some of you may ask what is the good of this club swinging, and this can be very well answered by showing

The SNAPSHOT GUILD STORY TELLING

It's the story-telling picture that carries real human interest appeal.

ALMOST all of us have had the experience of calling on friends who persist in getting out their collection of snapshots and parading them before the eyes of their defenseless guests.

Nor please bear in mind that I harbor no thoughts of this practice as being a breach of social etiquette. On the contrary, I am for it. But—there are many kinds and classes of snapshots. There are, for instance, the snapshots that are very good as far as exposure, sharpness and composition are concerned but with practically no human interest appeal. We can class these as record pictures. Have you ever heard of story-telling snapshots? I'll wager that many of you haven't. For that reason this week's Snapshot Guild will be devoted to story-telling pictures.

From the cradle to the grave we hear stories—and like them. All through our lives we relate our interest in story-illustrations. It is this appeal that takes us to the movies and causes us to look through the pages of daily newspapers and magazines for pictures that tell stories of human activities.

When it comes to taking snapshots, however, so many seem to forget about story-telling subjects. They pick up their cameras and just shoot. There is a better way to take pictures.

There is a vast difference between

Min-o-vite, Sulphur Potassium Iodide 5%, Vitamins A and D.

Metabolism of Minerals:

The chief claim we make for "MIN-O-VITE" is that it provides in one complete mixture all essential minerals including Iodine and Vitamin D, thus insuring maximum metabolism of Calcium. Unless minerals can be metabolized, little good results from their use, and Iodine is used to insure this, but when Vitamin D is also incorporated it is a proved fact that metabolism is increased enormously. Digestibility counts for little in a mineral mixture, it is the amount actually metabolized that indicates value for money.

ing the merits of it. After any person has started to learn club swinging, they will never regret having taken it up. In later years it will prove invaluable to those interested and will develop a persons muscles and mind to an extent which can only be found in very few other recreations.

Furthermore it is not an expensive hobby and does not require strenuous labour, although it does provide us with good sport.

But enough of that, what we were really trying to say is that all the students attending Bassano High and Public Schools should be thankful that they have a principal who takes an interest in their physical and mental talent. So come on you "kids" co-operate, and do your best to support your school and Mr. Meeres.

Dear Sir—

Appearing in last week's Recorder, was a letter from a "disgruntled" Would-Be-Girl-Guide.

The boys of this town had the ambition to take the matter of a Boy Scout organization into their own hands. Therefore by what cause should the women of their town receive the brunt of such an attack? It is plain to see that it is only due to the inability of such person or persons that there is no Guide movement as yet in Bassano.

If this person really had the interests of the Guides at heart, she would have known that a Company of Girl Guides will have been formed, in all probability by the time this letter is published.

King Neptune Awaits Cruise Passengers

King Neptune and his jolly crew of buccaners will have their first opportunity of subjecting West Indian Cruise passengers to the traditional rites of the "Flibby Court" when the Empress of Australia, in the course of one of the Canadian Pacific's eight West Indian cruises this winter, crosses the equator on her way to Rio de Janeiro.

For the first time in West India cruising the glamorous Brazilian city, with the "most beautiful harbor in the world" and unvarnished mountain scenery almost within its city limits, has been included in a Caribbean itinerary and the Empress will cross the equator and be boarded by King Neptune on routes there. St. George's, Grenada, one of the lovely Windward Islands, and also a new port of call, will be another attraction of the 22 day cruise starting from New York on January 15. Five days will be spent at Rio, time enough for a thorough exploration of the glamorous Latin city and its surrounding beauties and one evening will be devoted to a special round of the exotic night-life of the tropics. At Grenada, lovely St. George's, the Empress of Australia, will spend a special evening with the Canadian Pacific season with a Christmas and New Year trip to Jamaica, the Panama Canal Zone and Cuba. The Empress of Australia follows with seven voyages, leaving New York: January 4, March 11 and March 25, for Antigua, Cuba and Bermuda; January 15, for 23 days, to Barbados, Rio de Janeiro, Grenada, Venezuela and Jamaica; February 19, for 19 days, to Martinique, Barbados, Trinidad, Curacao, the Panama Canal Zone, Jamaica and Cuba; April 12, for 19 days, to Jamaica, Cuba and the Bahamas; and finally, April 24, an Easter Holiday Cruise, for ten days, to Jamaica and Cuba.

Picture layout shows a glimpse of beautiful Grenada, the Empress of Australia, and happy scenes from the colorful diversities which highlight King Neptune's visit.

Imperial Oil Hockey Broadcasts Commence Saturday, Nov. 6th

"Hello Canada - and hockey fans in Newfoundland and the United States!" - Once more, on Saturday, November 6th, Foster Hewitt's familiar greeting will sweep over a chain of stations from coast to coast. And even in more distant countries - will rally round their radios to hear the opening Imperial Oil Hockey Broadcast of the game between Toronto Maple Leafs and New York Americans, at Maple Leaf Gardens.

That this program is the world's biggest and most popular weekly sports broadcast is borne out by a letter received from an enthusiastic sports hockey fan, formerly of Nov Scotia, but who writes to say he is going to "listen in" from her far-away home in Cretaceous, Canada, where she claims reception is crystal clear.

The Imperial Oil Hockey Broadcast will expand this coming winter practically "blanketing" every province in Canada with the broadcasts of games played either in Toronto or in Montreal.

Last winter broadcasting from Montreal the games was not permitted during the "regular" season schedule, leaving this province without hockey until the play-off. This winter, become chronic.

Inflammation of the larynx and vocal chords causes a hoarse cough which is usually ineffectual in removing any mucus.

Coughing is much more prevalent in winter than in summer because disease germs which are so frequently present in the mouth and nose flourish when the body is subjected to lower temperatures. It is, therefore, most important that in winter every effort be made to keep the body free from undue exposure to cold and wet. When a cough does develop stop indoors if at all possible until all danger of developing serious infection has passed.

A neglected cough or cold accounts for a great many illnesses, and a great many deaths. It doesn't pay to ignore a troublesome cough.

however, Imperial Oil Limited has secured a franchise for all Saturday night games in Montreal.

With the province of Quebec thus provided for, the hockey network will now cover the entire Dominion with games played either in Toronto or in Montreal, and Saturday night will very definitely become HOCKEY NIGHT IN CANADA.

Imperial Oil Montreal staff of English announcers is already familiar to listeners throughout Canada, due to its handling of the Montreal play-off games last winter. In addition to the English broadcasts of games at the Forum, there will be a companion broadcast, entirely in French, and featuring Roland Desjardins as the play announcer. This will go over a Quebec provincial network of five stations - believed to be the largest French language network ever used on a weekly sports feature.

Thus the Imperial Oil Hockey Broadcasts during the coming winter will actually consist of three separate and distinct broadcasts every Saturday night. One of these will be the regular broadcast of the Maple Leaf home games from the Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto. A second will be the English broadcast of either the Canadiens or Canadiens some game at the Forum in Montreal - which may occasionally be heard over the national network, particularly during play-offs. The third will be the all-French broadcast of the Montreal games, sent out over a Quebec provincial network.

It is believed that this dual broadcast from Montreal is the only weekly two-language feature of its sort in the entire world.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
AUTUMN SNAPSHOTTING

WE MAY sing of the flowers that bloom in the spring - but a song cannot adequately describe the wonderful colorings that Mother Nature bestows upon the trees and shrubs in the fall. The woods are ablaze with color and new color of fall flowers appear. Lakos, pines, and the well known huddling brook seems to reflect these bright colors.

Now, let's consider the type of film to use for fall colors. For example, suppose you are taking a picture of a bed of fall flowers - some deep orange or red and others dark blue. Ordinary film, not the chrome type, would yield a print in which the brighter colored flowers would appear darker than the blue ones. Though to the eye the orange and red flowers appeared lighter, it would not in other words, give true color brightness values in black and white print. However, with what is known as panchromatic film, the true color brightness values in black and white print. However, with what is known as panchromatic film, the true color brightness values in black and white print. However, with what is known as panchromatic film, the true color brightness values in black and white print.

A filter is a specially prepared disc of colored gelatin, between glass which is slipped over the camera lens. Its function is to hold back certain rays of light and let others pass through. Although there are several kinds, I believe the beginner who has never used a filter might choose between the two most popularly used, or better yet, have both to use when necessary to improve the quality and artistic appearance of the snapshot.

One of these filters is known as the K-2. When using the K-2 filter with chrome type film, it is necessary to increase the exposure over that which you would give without the filter about 2 1/2 times. With super-sensitive panchromatic film the exposure with a K-2 filter need be increased but two times.

The other filter is used largely to photograph clouds in a landscape with NO increase in exposure time. This is called a Sky Filter, one half of which is yellow, and the other half clear. The reason why this filter can record both clouds and landscape without requiring any increase in exposure is that the sky is photographed through the yellow part of the filter while the landscape is photographed through the part which is not colored. The yellow part of the filter holds back the blue of the sky somewhat and gives the white clouds more chance to record their real beauty.

Your nearest dealer in photographic materials will gladly give you more information regarding the use of color filters and I am sure that when you realize the great difference the use of a filter makes in the appearance of your snapshots you will become a confirmed user of this inexpensive accessory.

HEALTH

A HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

COUGHING

Coughing is almost invariably a reflex act. It may occasionally be a neurotic or wilful act. In the vast majority of cases the stimulus which originates the cough is situated in some region of the respiratory passages between the vocal chords and the tiny little terminal air cells in the lungs which are found at the end of the branches coming off the windpipe. This is called the bronchial tree.

The cause of the irritation in the respiratory passages is in the majority of cases either an inflamed or congested condition of the mucous membrane lining the passage or an excessive quantity of mucus secretion brought about by invading enemies called germs. Less frequent causes are hemorrhages in the lungs inflammation in the lungs, pressure upon the windpipe by an enlarged thyroid gland situated like a horse shoe around the air passage in the neck, or foreign bodies in the throat or windpipe such as dust or particles of food.

The character of the cough varies with the cause and to some extent with the general state of health. The most obvious distinction in the quality of the cough is that between the moist or loose cough and the dry or hard cough. The loose cough indicates the successful removal of mucus from the air passages which in adults results in expectoration. Children usually swallow secretions which they cough up. The dry cough indicates the presence of an irritant which the cough is unable to remove from the air passages. The hard cough of the early stages of bronchitis at first is usually followed by a loose cough consequent upon the production of mucus which is secreted by the inflamed membrane. It is most important that persons suffer from a dry hard cough - be kept warm and free from draughts of air in order that the inflammation which is present may not be permitted to progress to the point of invading the lung tissue and thus produce pneumonia.

A short, weak, frequently repeated dry cough is known as a hacking cough. It is due to a mild irritation in the upper air passages, a condition which is usually

Over $40,000,000 worth of Western Farm Products poured into the East last year

In steady work, the industrial employee maintains a high standard of living. His appetite for Prairie Province foodstuffs is insatiable. He and his family are one of the reasons why over $40,000,000 worth of Western farm products found a market in the East last year.

Over $40,000,000 is a lot of money; it's a sum that means much to the Western producer, collectively and individually. It went, generously, to every type of farmer.

For instance, those specializing in livestock, took in over $15,000,000 for 127,000 tons of fresh and cured dressed meat, 175,705 head of cattle, 21,144 calves and 41,557 hogs shipped to the East. Nearly 10,000 tons of butter brought in $4,500,000 more, while grains, poultry, eggs, honey and other commodities accounted "for" an additional aggregate of well over $20,000,000.

That is why a prosperous industrial East means a prosperous agricultural West: for more and busier Eastern workers mean a greater demand on their Western commodities. Your purchase of a Made-in-Canada car helps towards this end.

There are 18,000 workers in Canada's automobile plants, and 15,000 in the people whose prosperity depends on what is put on the assembly line of the motor car. The large crop of Western Canada - a group of people who contribute to the national income.

KOAL-ORE

Try a package of this. The Great All British Coal Shovel and Fuel Producer.
 To use one-pound of Koal-Ore add one pint of cold water, mix thoroughly and stir twice over, then at once apply to about 1 cwt. of coal, coke or slack, by sprinkling well over and mixing with fuel. The coal is then ready for use. Recken two to three centimes of coal to the cwt. You will find that it will only be necessary to use about one half the quantity of coal to obtain the same heat. Also reduce draughts in ovens, cuppers, grates etc. Koal Ore is non-pollutious, has no smell, and emits no fumes. Koal Ore has no dirt. Spillages are useless and dear at any price. Try only Koal-Ore and cut your coal bill in two. Price per bag, enough to treat one ton of coal, Only 75c

Master Douglas Phillips chauffeured her presents into the room while Mrs. A. Phillips played the "Wedding March". The Arrowwood Rugby Team have had considerable luck this past week by turning in 3 wins out of the same number of starts. The High School team playing in Mile took the home team 22-5, while in a return engagement at Arrowwood won 21-11. The own team blasted their southern rivals from Vulcan to the tune 22-0 on the local gridiron Saturday. The boys have been having a good year thus far and with coaching should in a few years time have one of the best teams in Alberta.

There is to be an amateur hour and dance held in Arrowwood on Nov. 13. Watch for further announcement.

Plan Splendid Hunting Season

Prospects for big-game hunting are unusually bright in Canada this fall. Reports covering the thousands of square miles of wilderness accessible by Canadian Pacific Railway show a plenitude of game and excellent conditions for hunting. Outfitters and guides across the country also report more reservations for hunting parties, both from Canada and the United States, than they have had for years.

Wild sections of Canada lying practically in the back yard of civilization have a wide variety of big game in addition to many types of game birds and smaller animals. Nova Scotia has moose, deer and black bear; New Brunswick, deer and black bear; Quebec, moose, caribou, deer and black bear; Ontario, moose, deer and black bear; Manitoba and Saskatchewan, moose, deer and caribou; Alberta and British Columbia, moose, sheep and goats, caribou, moose, elk (wapiti), deer, and, strictly, brown and black bear, and the Yukon Territory and Alaska, practically the same as British Columbia. An indication of the increased interest in hunting this year has been given by the number of applications coming to the general tourist offices in Windsor, Montreal, for copies of the two hunting booklets, "Open Seasons for Hunting" and "Fishing Waters and Game Reserves."

Hussar, Nov. 28.—On Friday evening, fifty old timers gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clark to do honor to Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, who will be leaving the community for Verdun, Manitoba, soon after their sale on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. F. Brink were assisting entertainers. Bridge was enjoyed for a few hours. A delicious lunch was served, with the honored guests at the head of the table. Mr. Clark in behalf of those present, expressed regret at having Mr. and Mrs. Brown, true and tried old-timers here, leave the community, and best wishes for their future success. He presented them with a satin bed throw.

HALLOWEEN AFTERMATH

It would seem fitting at this time that the citizens of Bassano express their appreciation of the fine spirit of good citizenship and consideration shown by the younger element of the community in confining their Halloween pranks to those of a harmless and inoffensive nature.

The occasion was not marred by the depredations and damage to property which annually marks the event in some localities.

This is an important step towards the development of a fine feeling of mutual good will and good fellowship which is helpful to both young and old, making our town a better place to live in and one of which we may be justly proud.
